

令和4年度私費外国人留学生
(学部留学生) 特別入試 英語
問題用紙

PART ONE Read the following passage and answer the questions on the answer sheet.

この部分に記載されている文章については、
著作権法上の問題から掲載することが
できませんので、ご了承ください。

この部分に記載されている文章については、
著作権法上の問題から掲載することが
できませんので、ご了承ください。

(Adapted from David Robson, “The digital body language cues you send – or don’t send”, BBC Worklife, online, 2021)

* punctuation: the symbols used in writing such as commas or question marks

 sarcasm: using words which mean the opposite of what you want to say, either to hurt someone or to criticize something in a humorous way

1. Which word below best expresses the meaning of 'prompt' in paragraph 1?
 - A. absent
 - B. late
 - C. polite
 - D. quick

2. Which of the following is NOT true of Dhawan?
 - A. She believes in the importance of punctuation and emoji.
 - B. She conducts her own research.
 - C. She describes exactly how people should behave online.
 - D. She has recently written a book.

3. Which of the following is NOT true of paragraph 4?
 - A. Misunderstandings in digital communication may cost businesses four hours of work per week.
 - B. People identify sarcasm less often in writing than in speaking.
 - C. Psychologists are just beginning to learn about problems in digital communication.
 - D. The majority of people in the survey regularly experience misunderstandings in digital communication.

4. Which TWO of the following sentences best summarize Dhawan's advice in paragraphs 9 and 10?
 - A. If you check your emails carefully, you'll save time.
 - B. If you do not know the answer to a question, you should say so.
 - C. If you need more time, send a quick email to tell the person that.
 - D. If you proof-read your message, you won't forget what you want to say.
 - E. If you want to communicate carefully, think about your engagement.

PART TWO Read the following passage and answer the questions on the answer sheet.

この部分に記載されている文章については、
著作権法上の問題から掲載することが
できませんので、ご了承ください。

この部分に記載されている文章については、
著作権法上の問題から掲載することが
できませんので、ご了承ください。

(Adapted from Alex Quigley, Closing the Reading Gap, 2020)

1. Who is this mainly text written for? Choose the BEST answer from the choices below:
 - A. children
 - B. parents
 - C. researchers
 - D. teachers

2. Match the following titles to the most appropriate paragraph ([2] – [5]). Write the title letter below (A-D) on the answer sheet.
 - A. An existing problem
 - B. Benefits for early vocabulary learning
 - C. Visualizing the problem
 - D. When the reading gap begins

3. Which TWO of the following are NOT true of the text?
 - A. Around a quarter of primary school children in England do not achieve sufficient reading ability.
 - B. Children learn many words from books that are not common in speech.
 - C. It is essential to help children learn to enjoy reading.
 - D. It is necessary to provide books to parents to read to their children.
 - E. The quality of teaching always affects reading gains and fluency.

4. Explain the meaning of the underlined sentence in paragraph 6 in your own words in English on your answer sheet.

PART THREE Describe your experience of learning to read as a child and how that has influenced you as a reader today. Explain your ideas in an English essay of about 150 words.